Safeway-brand salad mix recalled due to possible E.coli O157:H7 contamination

DENVER— Safeway is recalling four of its “Safeway Farms” bagged salad mixes due to possible E.coli O157:H7 contamination. The recalled items have been pulled from store shelves, and no illnesses have been reported.

The recalled products were sold Nov. 7-16. The following products have been recalled. They should not be consumed but returned to the place of purchase for a refund.

Product name	Lot #	UPC Code
Safeway Farms Caesar Romaine, 10 ounce	IR501788	0-21130-98350-6
Safeway Farms Hearts of Romaine, 9 ounce	IR501789	0-21130-98358-2
Safeway Farms Supreme Caesar Complete Kit, 10 ounce	IR501785	0-21130-33677-7
Safeway Farms Southwestern Ranch Complete Kit, 10.25 ounce	IR501786	0-21130-33679-1

E. coli O157:H7 is a potentially deadly bacteria that can cause bloody diarrhea, dehydration, and in the most severe cases, kidney failure. The very young, seniors and people with weakened immune systems are the most susceptible to foodborne illness.

Customers with questions about this recall may contact Safeway at 1-800-SAFEWAY.
